Reference No. 223359CPL

Schedule of Reasons

1The proposed development shown in drawing numbers: Site Location Plan, Block Plan, Existing Plans, Proposed Plans, Elevations (no reference numbers provided), falls within the provisions of Schedule 2, Part 1, Class A of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development Order) (England) Order 2015 and is therefore lawful.

Reference No. 223359CPL

The following items are also brought to the applicant's attention:

INFORMATIVES:

1 This decision relates solely to the drawings submitted. If the development varies externally in any way from these drawings, this certificate will not apply to the development and it may be that the works involved require you to obtain prior Planning Permission from the Council.

Notes

This certificate is issued solely for the purpose of Section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended). It is not a planning permission, and is not a building regulations approval.

It certifies that the use, operations or matter specified in the notice taking place on the land described in the notice was lawful on the specified date and thus, was not liable to enforcement action under Section 172 of the 1990 Act on that date.

This certificate applies only to the extent of the development described in this notice and identified on plans referred to in this notice. Any development which is materially different from that described or which relates to other land may render the owner or occupier liable to enforcement action

The effect of the certificate is also qualified by the proviso in section 192 of the 1990 Act, as amended, which states that the lawfulness of a described development is only conclusively presumed where there has been no material change, before the use is instituted or the operations begun, in any of the matters relevant to determining such lawfulness.

The notes below set out the rights of the applicants who are aggrieved by the decision of the Local Planning Authority. If you are not the applicant, please make sure that these notes are drawn to her/his attention

Appeals to the Secretary of State

If you are aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority not to issue a Certificate of lawful Development on the terms sought, you may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, Transport and the Regions, under Section 195 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

If you want to appeal, then you must do so using a form which can be downloaded from the Planning Inspectorate website www.planning-inspectorate.gov.uk or obtained from The Planning Inspectorate, Customer Support Unit, Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, BRISTOL BS1 6PN, Telephone: 0117 372 6372.

The planning Inspectorate have introduced an online appeals service which you can use to make your appeal and you can access this through the Appeals section of the Planning Portal at <https://www.gov.uk/appeal-planning-inspectorate>. Please note the data protection and privacy advice given on the Planning Portal.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it appears to him that the local planning authority could not reasonably have issued a Certificate of Lawful Development or could not have issued one in the terms sought by the applicant.
